Kennedy Promises Farm Price Hike, Cure for Surplus

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Midwest Democrats hailed today a bold pledge of their presidential nominee John F. Kennedy to raise farm prices and incomes and to cure the nation's farm surplus headache.

The Massachusetts senator made this promise—which he said was the strongest ever given farmers by any party in history—before a cheering farm rally late Sunday attended by farmers and party leaders from the country's agricultural heartland.

Kennedy was backed up by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas his running mate.

Kennedy went all out to impress upon the traditionally Republican farm states that he considered declining farm incomes and what he called Republican disinterest in farmers to be about the biggest domestic issue of the presidential campaign.

He said the GOP has brought near disaster to the nation's farmers.

Kennedy and Johnson brought with them a big array of Democratic leaders to help assure farm voters that the party would not go back on its commitments—an act they charged to the Republican administration.

These included Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, Stuart Symington of Missouri, Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Henry M. Jackson of Washington. Jackson is Democratic national chairman.

Backing up his party's platform, Kennedy said that he would take positive action beginning next January to raise farm income to full parity and to preserve the family type farm as a way of life. "I pledge every effort of mind and heart to do it," he said.

Kennedy did not translate his farm income promise to dollars and cents. But party farm leaders said this could mean at least a 25 per cent increase, or more than three billion dollars, in farmers' annual income.

In a further move to swing midland farmers to his cause, Kennedy promised to name a Midwesterner with a farm background as his secretary of agriculture.

Kennedy did not spell out in detail the farm program he would set up, explaining this would be done as the campaign progressed.

But he did say it would be accomplished through a positive policy of management of farm supplies that would emphasize better diets for the low income at home and more American food for the undernourished abroad.

He said sterner farm production and marketing controls might be required. This met with approval of most of the farmers who earlier in the rally had told a party panel they were willing to accept more rigid restrictions to gain better incomes.

A move to stronger controls would change the direction of Eisenhower administration farm policies designed to get the government out of the business of controlling farm production and prices.

Both Kennedy and Johnson struck hard at Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Kennedy's presidential opponent, and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. The blows brought wild cheers from the audience, estimated at 10,000 by officials of Veterans Memorial Auditorium where the meeting was held.

Johnson Says GOP 'Forgets' After Election

CINCINNATI (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, in a quick stop here for a campaign speech says the Republican Party "forgets the people" after Election Day.

The senator, Democratic candidate for vice president, told a jammed first session of the National Association of Letter Carriers Sunday night:

"Why in this Administration, is it that the 'Go' signal is turned on only every four years?"

"Must an administration forget our people after Nov. 8 as they were forgotten in 1953 and then again in 1957?"

He contended many groups "felt the wrath of the Republican Administration when Congress tried to help them in their time of need."

Senator Johnson said, "When Congress tried to bring a modest amount of security to injured working men, the Administration fought tooth and nail."

"When Congress tried to hold the rapidly sliding level of farm income, the Administration responded with a veto."

"When Congress tried to come to the relief of job hunting men and women in the dreary pockets of unemployment that scar our nation, the Administration answer was a firm 'No.'"

Johnson's plane landed here en route to Washington from a 13-state Democratic farm conference and rally at Des Moines, Iowa. He spent just over an hour here before resuming his flight.

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—Mourning bells tolled in nearly 1,000 Roman Catholic churches throughout Ceylon Sunday in protest against the government decision to take over schools run by religious bodies.

Ohio Records Unusually High Weekend Toll

Accidents Take 32 Lives with 26 of Them on Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio racked up one of its worst traffic fatality records for a non-holiday weekend this year in the 54-hour period just past.

On Sunday alone 15 highway deaths were reported. That boosted the weekend toll to 32.

Add to that four drownings and a fire death and you get a grim total for the number of accidental fatalities in the state from 6 p.m. Friday through midnight Sunday.

There were three multiple fatality traffic accidents and they claimed a total of seven lives.

The worst one was in southwestern Preble County, near the Indiana border. A Dayton mother, her infant daughter and a 68-year-old Indiana grandfather were killed when two station wagons, loaded with families returning home from Sunday visits, collided at an intersection.

Thirteen persons, including nine children from 1½ to 16 years of age, were hospitalized after that crash.

Two double fatalities were recorded, two men died in a car-truck crash near Princeton in Butler County, and two women were killed in a two-car collision in Obitz, just south of Columbus.

The fatalities:

Friday Night
Cecil Shaffer 46, Defiance, when his car struck a bridge abutment, flipped in the air and came down on the front end of an auto he had just passed on a county road about four miles southwest of Defiance.

Norris Farson, 9, Canton, struck by a car as he crossed a street near his home.

Mrs. Mary Banks, 21, Dayton, struck by a bus there.

Saturday
Caroline Hodgson, 44, Euclid, when her car was struck by a passenger train at a crossing in Wickliffe (Lake County).

Jimmy Massa, 20 months old Cleveland, in a two-car collision there.

Raymon Martinez, 25 Bowling Green, drowned in a quarry where he had been swimming, eight miles southwest of Bowling Green.

Sharon Greear, 4, Gypsum, when she opened the rear door of the family car traveling in Port Clinton, and tumbled out into the path of an oncoming auto.

Mrs. Ellen Holley, 61, Obitz, and Miss Charlene Webb, 22, Lockbourne Air Force Base, when their cars collided in Obitz (Franklin County).

James Romano 62, Cleveland, struck by a car as he crossed a street there.

Sam Manos 80, Canton, suffered a fatal heart attack as a result of a traffic accident in Canton, said a deputy coroner, who ruled it a traffic fatality.

Sunday
Mrs. Alva Lee Mong, 51, Seville, when her car collided with another auto on Ohio 3 south of Hinkley (Medina County).

Lawrence Muglich, 20, Cleveland, drowned in Hinkley Park Lake (Medina County) after jump-

Mt. Vernon Is Rattled By High Wind

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—The chief of the auxiliary police force was seriously injured Sunday night when violent winds hit the near northwest section of Mount Vernon.

Dan Trace, 38, a salesman who also serves as head of the volunteer police auxiliary here, was hit by one, and possibly two of the cars in traffic he was directing. He is in serious condition at Mercy Hospital with chest and internal injuries. Police said there was heavy rain at the time.

Witnesses said winds of 50 to 60 m.p.h. struck the northwest side about 8 p.m., uprooting trees and shaking down hundreds of large branches. Two Mansfield couples—Mr. and Mrs. Doug Amstutz and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Zeigler—were trapped in a convertible for a half-hour when a large section of a tree fell on it. They were said not to be seriously hurt.

A police cruiser was slammed into a curb on Ohio 13 (Sandusky Street) by the force of the wind, but authorities said the wind was nowhere near as violent elsewhere in the city. Even on the northwest side, it passed in a matter of minutes. Civil Defense volunteers assisted in the cleanup, which included repair of power and telephone lines.

Young Hospital Inmates Smother Trio 'For Kicks'

U.N. Slaps Down Criticism of Dag

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council Sunday night overwhelmingly endorsed Dag Hammarskjöld's direction of U.N. military and civilian aid in the Congo.

In Leopoldville, today, the Congolese government withdrew the demands it has been trying to impose on the United Nations Congo operation.

There was no formal vote in the council after more than 12 hours of debate, but speaker after speaker from all regions of the world upheld the U.N. secretary-general's policy of neutrality toward the Congo's domestic disputes.

The council majority rejected the blasts of Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba and the harsh criticism by the Soviet Union that poured out over Moscow radio and was repeated here by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov.

Hammarskjöld flew back to New York Aug. 16 seeking council support of his refusal to use the U.N. force of nearly 15,000 men to put Lumumba in control of mineral-rich Katanga province, whose Premier Moïse Tshombe declared his independence of Lumumba's government. Hammarskjöld said that if Lumumba's view was upheld, the U.N. operation would have to be ended in the Congo.

Lumumba cried blackmail and demanded that the U.N. force be put under his government's control and that Hammarskjöld be supplanted by a commission from 14 African and Asian nations. Lumumba's emissary, Deputy Premier Antoine Gizenga, repeated the demands in the council debate.

Kuznetsov proposed a resolution to create an Asian-African committee as a sort of overlord of the U.N. force. But as the council session neared its end after midnight, the gaunt, graying Soviet official confessed he could not get the seven vetoes necessary in the 11-nation council to approve the resolution. He withdrew the resolution and the marathon session—second in two weeks on the Congo situation—ended without a vote.

It marked still another setback for the Soviet Union, which during the debate (1) demanded withdrawal of Canadian troops from the U.N. force "because Canada is an ally of Belgium"; (2) called Belgium an aggressor in the Congo, trying with NATO allies to establish a new form of colonialism under a U.N. flag; (3) and said the United States was trying to bring the Congo into the NATO sphere of influence under Hammarskjöld's civilian aid program to get the Congo government going on a workable basis.

The rejection of the Soviet contention was unmistakable. Hammarskjöld took the floor three times to argue quietly with the statements of Gizenga and Kuznetsov.

The secretary-general said he was adopting the Soviet suggestion for an advisory committee, which he said would be made up of governments contributing units to the U.N. military force in the Congo. But he said it would do his advising at U.N. headquarters, not in Leopoldville as Kuznetsov proposed, and it would not report to the Congo government as the Soviet demanded.

Poland was the only council member to support the Soviet viewpoint.

Armand Bernard of France, council president for August, summed up the debate with a statement that the statements in the debate should provide Hammarskjöld with all the clarification he needed.

There remained Lumumba's threat to throw the U.N. force out of the Congo if the council did not satisfy his demands. The Congo has been approved for membership by the Security Council but has not been voted on yet by the General Assembly.

Now Even People In Hell Want Own Post Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—Now even the people in Hell want a post office.

That's right, Rep. Charles E. Chamberlain (R-Mich.) told Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield today that his constituents from Hell, Mich., say they could use a postal substation.

It's a just a small place as Chamberlain pictures it—a restaurant, a service station and a number of summer cottages. But it draws large numbers of tourists.

"One young man from Illinois by the name of Mr. Satan insisted on bringing his bride to the resort area so that they could be married there," he wrote Summerfield.

"During the tourist season, it is visited by a very large number of people, most of whom are greatly disappointed that they are not able to communicate with the folks at home from Hell."

Soviet Space Dogs Normal After Their Pioneer Flight

MOSCOW (AP)—The two Soviet space dogs are reported frisky, with their heart and blood pressure normal, after their pioneer flight around the earth 16 times within 24 hours.

The dogs—Belka (Squirrel) and Strelka (Arrow)—landed safely in a special container catapulted from their space ship when it had "come down to a low height," Pravda said.

The Soviet Communist party newspaper said the 4½-ton space ship, which carried a cargo of mice, flies and plants, made a smooth landing "undamaged and whole" in a meadow of a collective farm somewhere in the Soviet Union on Saturday. Presumably the landing was made with the aid of parachutes, but Pravda gave no details. The ship had been launched Friday.

One Soviet scientist, Prof. D. V. Martynov, said that the satellite used in the test "could carry both a man and large variety of scientific instruments." Other scientists hailed the recovery of the ship as another big step toward sending a man into space.

The journey covered 700,000 kilometers—434,700 miles—in an orbit 198.8 miles above the earth. The Soviets said the landings were made within seven miles of the target spot.

Strelka and Belka leaped from their cabin after its hatch was opened and "barked joyously and fawned on the people," Pravda said.

Their companions on the epic flight were reportedly equally lively on returning, the mice nibbling on biscuits, the flies "keeping flying around the flasks" in which they traveled.

"One of the plants that was on board the space ship continued to blossom," the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

TV cameras inside the space capsule recorded the actions of the dogs during the flight. Astronomer Mikhail Barabashov said they showed the phenomenon of weightlessness in space caused no grave disturbances of physical function.

Some Soviet newspapers reported briefly the recovery of the 85-pound U.S. space capsule in the air over the Pacific but this was dismissed as an experiment for espionage purposes.

West European newspapers generally viewed the Soviet achievement as another demonstration of the Soviet lead in the race with the United States to get a man into space. The London Observer

4 Brothers Killed By Fire in Barn

FWLERVILLE, Mich. (AP)—Fire killed four brothers Sunday as they played in a barn on their uncle's farm while the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Crofoot, fished on a nearby lake.

Relatives feared the worst when the children could not be found, but it was hours before the charred bodies were discovered in the ruins.

Killed were Raymond, 6, Leonard, 5, Edward, 3, and Alendale, 16 months.

Gallipolis Pair Nabbed Tying Fourth Slaying

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two young inmates of Gallipolis State Hospital, caught trying to smother a patient said they smothered three other inmates for kicks, Mental Health Commissioner Henry Luidens reported today.

Luidens ordered an investigation into the three deaths, previously believed to be from natural causes.

He said the youths, Robert Brown, 18, and John Turner, 14, were transferred to Lima State Hospital for the criminal insane. Luidens said attendants caught the pair wrapping a sheet and towels about the throat of a 39-year-old patient in the custodial ward Sunday night.

The commissioner quoted the pair as admitting they were attempting to cause the patient's death and saying they would kill others if they had the chance. He said Brown had a mental capacity of eight years and four months and Turner a capacity of six years and eight months.

Brown ran away from Columbus State School 15 times before his transfer to Gallipolis, records showed. Turner has always been at Gallipolis.

Their home addresses were not immediately available.

The three inmates whose deaths are under investigation are Paul Cross, 42, Cincinnati; Robert Flora, 39 Toledo, and William Murphy, 41, Lucasville.

All three died earlier this month. They were described as "back porch" patients too feeble to defend themselves.

The youths were quoted as saying they killed two of their victims by luring them into a night toilet; the third while he slept. Dr. George R. Roberts, Gallipolis superintendent, said he had turned information over to the county prosecutor for possible action. He said neither of the youths ever has been declared psychotic.

Sheriff Nabs 3 Suspected Of Burglaries

Two local adults and a juvenile girl were apprehended Sunday by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department in connection with burglaries in Ross and Franklin Counties.

The adults were identified as John R. Blevins, 24, Circleville, and Robert E. Knece, 35, of 393 W. Huston St.

Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff said the 16-year-old girl is the wife of Blevins.

Sheriff Radcliff said the three were picked up here after a car owned by one of the men was seen at Hallsville where a store was burglarized Saturday night.

ONE of the accused told the sheriff that all three were involved in a burglary in Franklin County Friday night.

Sheriff Radcliff said much of the stolen loot was found in the Blevins and Knece homes here. He said articles included clothes, a TV set, kitchen utensils, liquor, cigarettes, jewelry and large quantities of food.

Radcliff said the accused persons also may be involved in several burglaries committed in Pickaway County. Two of three persons are being held here and one in Ross County awaiting filing of charges.

Spunky Blamed For Holdup

Stuebenville Tavern Loses $200 to Pair

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Gordon (Spunky) Firman, 21-year-old Coshocton County jailbreaker, and another man, probably a fellow jailbreaker, Bob Johnson, 22, got nearly $200 in the armed holdup of a night club a mile north of here about 3 A.M. today, Deputy Sheriff George Young said.

The Jefferson County deputy said a former high school classmate of Firman was a customer in the Kitty Kat Cafe when the two men robbed the place and identified Firman. A waitress in the place, which Firman used to frequent, also told Young she identified Firman from pictures as one of the holdup men, the deputy said.

The pair took money from the cash register but did not rob the customers, Young said. They used a shotgun and a revolver.

Spunky, 21, and Johnson, 22, have gotten plenty of newspaper space in the past week, climaxed when Firman raided the Coshocton County jail last Wednesday and forced a deputy sheriff to release his buddy. Both he and Johnson were captured Aug. 7 when Firman eluded a posse.

Last week, Firman—or someone identified in each case as that youthful desperado—led law officers all across southern and central Ohio a wild chase in a string of stolen cars and trucks, meanwhile piling up hit-skip accidents, pulling a service station holdup, a couple of gas station burglaries and an alleged kidnapping of several Hamilton youths who were forced to chauffeur him from Hamilton to Circleville.

Firman was in jail for allegedly contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He had a previous record dating back to the time he was 14 years old of burglary and larceny.

Ostriches Sought For Guard Duty

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Ostriches far from meeting any threat to their security by sticking their heads in the sand, are sufficiently alert and aggressive to make excellent watch dogs.

Or so believes the parks department of Pretoria, which has told ostrich farmers of Oudtshoorn, in Cape Province, it is anxious to get ostriches to watch over the Wonderboom nature reserve. Dr. H. Bruins-Lich, director of the department, explained:

"There are many people who make a habit of trespassing in the reserve, and the ostriches, if we can get them, would be good protection for the blesbok (antelope) we are putting there."

Circleville's Civilian GIs Move into Field at Grayling

By RICHARD DAVIS
Herald Staff Writer

GRAYLING, MICH. — Circleville's "civilian soldier" organization, Rifle and Weapons Platoon of the 166th Infantry Regiment of the Ohio National Guard, moved to Camp Grayling, Mich., August 13, in a motorized convoy of 1,700 vehicles or 50 miles long.

Arriving at Camp Grayling around noon, August 14, the "citizen-soldiers" immediately began setting up camp in the rain, which added to the "uncomforts of home," along Lake Margrethe. The first week of training was climaxed Saturday with an inspection parade. A 24-hour pass was issued to many of the men for a Saturday or Sunday "out on the town." For those who remained at camp, there were baseball games, swimming in Lake Margrethe or just taking it easy around camp.

Company A is commanded by Captain Hugh Clements of Columbus. It is the largest National Guard Company of the 37th Division to attend summer training this year. It is composed of the Weapons and Rifle Platoon from Circleville and the 2nd Rifle and Headquarters Platoon from Columbus.

Starting Monday the Circleville platoon will move out on field maneuvers again for another four days. This will mean crawling through poison ivy, wading through muddy creeks and running behind an M-48 tank, which kicks up a cloud of dust so heavy that you can hardly see your hand before you.

AFTER FOUR days of this training, which includes sleeping on the cold ground and eating C rations, the group pulls out and another group moves in, to do the same thing. The time that isn't spent in the field is spent on the ranges, firing rifles, machine guns, tossing hand grenades and learning the functions as well as the use of other weapons used by the infantry. Many long hours of drill and inspection are also among the anticipated agonies of the "citizen soldier."

After each group has had its turn on the field and firing ranges, camp will be broken and trucks packed, ready for the long, long trip home. The Circleville platoon will leave Grayling Saturday and is expected to arrive in Circleville around noon Sunday.

A Chillicothe driver cited for operating a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicants was one of several traffic violations disposed of Saturday and today in Circleville Municipal Court.

The OMVI charge was against Nolan E. DeLong, 31. He was fined $125 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driving rights suspended for six months. City police made the arrest.

Other drivers cited by local patrolmen were:

Kenneth R. Noble, 26, Columbus, $45 and costs for speeding at 70 miles per hour in a 25 mile zone.

Jack Picklesimer, 24, of 220 E. Main St., and Charles D. Fullen, 33, Circleville; each fined $30 and costs for reckless operation.

Burford B. Newman, 28, of 383 Walnut St.; $25 and costs for reckless operation.

Carman Davis, 21, Route 1, New Holland; $10 and costs for making unnecessary noise with a motor vehicle.

Attorney Kenneth Robbins presided over the court in the absence of Judge Sterling M. Lamb.

Board Clerk Says County Voter Registration Unlikely

Mrs. James B. Trimmer, clerk of the Pickaway County Board of Elections, said Saturday that registration for county voters for the November election appears unlikely.

Registration closes Sept. 28 and the board still is trying to get a Board of County Commissioners to defray cost of the proposed countywide registration.

Board action last March resulted in a two-to-two tie. Secretary of State Ted W. Brown cast a tie-breaking vote authorizing the registration.

Commissioners were asked to furnish the money. There was no action. A written request was made June 21. Commissioner Wayne Hines, an Ashville Republican made a motion July 5 to allow the appropriation. Neither of the two Democratic board members offered a second.

Commissioners, acting on a request of Common Pleas Judge William Ammer, authorized appointment of counsel last week to represent the election board in action against the Board of Commissioners. Ammer was on vacation and has not made an official court entry authorizing special counsel.

Mrs. Trimmer said the time element involved makes it almost impossible for court action to be brought against the commissioners in time to complete the proposed registration by September 28.

About 12,000 voters usually visit the polls during a general election, of whom two-thirds cast Democratic votes, she said.

Mrs. Trimmer said registration has never been required in either Pickaway County or its county seat Circleville. She explained that Circleville is not large enough to automatically require registration.

If money for registration is not made available in time, Pickaway County will continue without registration this year, she said.

Most Persons Put Love before Duty

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—You are a member of a picked team of 400 civilian Wright-Patterson Air Force Base maintenance workers. A disaster strikes, threatening not only the base but the entire area. What would you do? Would you report for duty immediately? Or would you wait until you had first seen to the safety of your family and friends?

Long Prison Term Started By Crum

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Closely guarded right up to his cell block, 32-year-old Everett Crum entered Ohio Penitentiary Saturday to start a long prison sentence for a series of crimes that included kidnapping.

Crum was brought to the penitentiary under guard of Clinton County Sheriff C. Floyd Foote, Clinton County Deputy Sheriff Harold Horwell and Chief of Police Stanley Irwin of Wilmington. Crum is the man who went on a 55-hour crime spree through three southwestern Ohio counties last February after he broke out of the Wilmington Jail where he was being held on suspicion of burglary.

His escape attempt brought flight through Clinton, Highland and Adams Counties, during which he kidnapped two men, wounded two police officers and stole three automobiles.

Finally captured at Cherry Fork in Adams County after holding Wilbur Trotter former mayor of Manchester, hostage for three hours at gunpoint, the prison sentences opened up for him Friday when he changed innocent pleas to pleas of guilty.

In Clinton County he was sentenced by Judge Luther Swaim Friday to 10-25 years for armed robbery; not less than 20 years for kidnapping to extort; 1-5 years for jail breaking and 1-20 years for auto theft. Then he was taken to Highland County where Judge Darrell R. Hottle sentenced him on 15 counts of assault with a deadly weapon, shooting to kill or wound, auto theft and breaking and entering. The same day, in Adams County, he was sentenced to not less than 20 years for kidnapping.

sonnel assigned to carry out the disaster control plan at Wright-Patterson would report for duty. Almost all the key group would be so torn by a conflict of loyalty between family, community and air force that they would not report.

The men questioned include bulldozer operators, electricians, carpenters, fire fighters and others needed to clear runways and get the base operating again quickly. The study, conducted by a graduate student in the Air Force Institute of Technology at Wright-Patterson, apparently is not considered evidence of what really would happen.

The institute earlier this year declined to release it for publication pointing out that it is only a student work. However, results show a similarity to the reaction of citizens at Texas City, Tex., after the explosion of a nitrate-laden freighter several years ago.

And they also show a likeness to reactions at McGuire Air Force Base N. J., following the recent explosion of a nuclear-armed bomber missile, when supposedly experienced personnel panicked in groundless fear of radiation.

The Air Force Institute study was conducted by Maj. Thomas S. Martin Jr., an advanced student in the School of Business Administration. It was compiled from answers to questions actually presented to 100 of the key 400-member base maintenance team.

Maj. Martin made nine recommendations:

1. Re-evaluation of emergency team composition to include more single men, men without families and military personnel. The absence of military personnel is "conspicuous," Martin noted.

2. Improved recall procedure to prevent personnel being recalled from being challenged.

3. Training to assure task performance on a first things first basis.

4. No-notice exercise to test reliability.

5. Development of family disaster plans for the key crew.

6. Pickup points from which the base could provide transportation.

7. An adequate civil defense organization.

8. Training to develop esprit de corps.

9. Honest presentation of the facts of life to team members. ("They must be prepared to accept the conflict of loyalty.")

Rhodes Aides Said Used as Book-Writers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James D. Ferguson, Democratic candidate for state auditor opposing incumbent Republican Auditor James A. Rhodes issued a statement Saturday saying that three full-time state employees "spend their time exclusively writing books for the Republican state auditor."

Auditor Rhodes said he had no comment to make at this time. Ferguson said one of Rhodes' historical novels was recently sold to television and movies, and declared "This money should be returned to the state treasury since the book was actually written by state employees on the state payroll."

Ferguson, son of State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson, said Roland D. Jauchius, Mrs. Genevieve Doole and Charles A. Burns of Rhodes' office were the employees helped write, research and sell the book. The statement said Ferguson was "hitting back at an editorial which appeared in a large number of Ohio newspapers about the number of Fergusons on the state payroll."

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Variable cloudiness prevailed during the night with thunder-showers ending in the extreme northeast portion shortly after midnight and occasionally a few light sprinkles falling in the central portion.

Near sunrise, ground fog formed in most areas, with heavy fog in the northeast.

Today skies will become partly cloudy, with the chance of showers and thundershowers again in the extreme east portion.

Fair, warm and humid weather is forecast for all of Ohio on Tuesday.

Sunday evening, heavy rain and high winds occurred at Mount Vernon, and a tornado near Marion. This morning temperatures reported around Ohio included Cleveland 63, Toledo 61, Cincinnati 67 and Columbus 65.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average about 4-8 degrees above normal. Normal high 81 north to 83 south.

Normal low 59-62. General warming trend to above normal Tuesday and Wednesday and probably Thursday, changing to cool Friday and Saturday. Precipitation about one inch, mostly occurring in period Thursday to Saturday.

Good, Bad Developments Noted in U.S. Economy

NEW YORK (AP)—Cross-currents swirled in the nation's economic stream last week.

There were some good developments and some not so good. American workers are making more money than ever before. The government reported that the personal income of individuals climbed in July to a record annual rate of 407 billion dollars.

This was about one billion dollars above June. A federal pay increase and an upturn in construction were mainly responsible. Manufacturing payrolls and farm income declined.

Industrial production maintained a steady pace in July after dipping in June. The Federal Reserve Board's index of output by mines, factories and utilities stood at 109 per cent of the 1957 average.

Home building has slumped and little or no improvements expected this month. In July the starts of private homes dropped to an annual rate of 1,173,000 units, about 10 per cent below the June rate.

Soft spots in the economy brought on widely scattered layoffs. Baltimore & Ohio Railroad put 10 per cent of its clerical forces on indefinite furloughs. Union Pacific Railroad laid off 1,200 workers. Hotpoint division of General Electric Co. in Chicago will drop 100 employees in the next two weeks. Lone Star Steel Co. of Texas plans to lay off between 1,500 and 2,000 beginning Aug. 26.

On the other hand, Republic Steel Corp. recalled 350 workers to reopen its pipe mill at Gadsden, Ala.

Steel production was scheduled to inch up to 55.8 per cent of capacity from last week's 53.5 but a strike at U.S. Steel Corp. threatened to put a crimp in the situation.

A walkout by U.S. Steel's railroad employees caused closing of five mills in the Pittsburgh area, idling thousands of other workers. These plants account for about seven per cent of the industry's total production.

There was no indication when the industry might turn the corner with a spurt in the operating rate. Orders for September still are weak.

Volume on the New York Stock Exchange declined to 13,702,603 shares from 14,699,940 last week.

Bond sales totaled $23,894,000, par value on the stock exchange compared with $24,655,000 last week and $24,811,000 a year ago.

Automobile output slumped to its lowest level of the year—approximately 48,000 passenger cars. But that wasn't unexpected because the makers are deep in the business of changing over to 1961 model production.

Dealers sold 136,050 new U.S. made cars in the first 10 days of August. This wasn't as good as expected but was 13 per cent above the corresponding June period and one-half of one per cent higher than a year ago.

The explosive management situation at Chrysler Corp. erupted twice during the week. Chrysler filed a suit against Detroit businessman Ben Stone in connection with his dealings with the corporation and its former president, Williams C. Newberg. Newberg resigned earlier and agreed to turn over to Chrysler $450,000 in profits from his interest in firms selling supplies to Chrysler.

Chrysler hired a New York law firm headed by Thomas E. Dewey to determine the adequacy of Chrysler's own investigation of conflict of interests among its executives.

Women became more interested in the fall fashions and helped boost retail trade to a slight gain over a year ago.

Housewives finally got some good news about food prices. Wholesale food prices dipped sharply from the year's highest level.

Three more federal reserve banks—Philadelphia, Chicago and St. Louis—were authorized to cut their discount rate from 3½ to 3 per cent. Of the 12 reserve banks, only those at Boston, Dallas and San Francisco had yet to reduce the rate of interest they charge borrowing member banks.

New York City got its third stock exchange and the country its 18th when the securities and exchange commission authorized the National Stock Exchange to start operations. Trading will begin about Nov. 1.

Briefly around the business scene: Advertising will reach an estimated volume of $11,910,000,000 this year. Japan and Hong Kong have captured 85 per cent of the imports of toys, dolls and games into the United States. An advertiser in the Wall Street Journal wants to buy an extinct volcano; he's interested in minerals. Heavy construction contract awards are running nine per cent ahead of last year.

Castro Nears End of Rope

The little independent surveying possible in Cuba today by newsmen from the free press of the United States and other nations seems to establish as fact that, while Castro still has a majority of the Cuban people in his camp, opposition to him is increasing steadily.

As time goes on more and more Cubans reluctantly conclude that the Castro regime now stakes everything on espousal of red radicalism.

If Castro ever had good intentions, which is doubtful, he was so much the greenhorn when he came to power that he fell in with the wrong clique and started to follow the communist line. His troubles stem from making Moscow-imported international revolution his aim.

Castro tried to propagandize U. S. Negroes into starting campaigns of violence to embarrass this nation as free world leader. He loaded revolutionary propagan-

'Centers' on the Move

Somewhere in Meridian township, Clinton County, Ill., says the census bureau, is the new population center of the United States. In the last 10 years it has moved 47 miles west and 12.5 miles south of its 1950 location near Louisville, Ill.

The census bureau defines the population center as that spot on which the United States with the addition of the two non-contiguous states — Alaska and Hawaii — would balance if all residents weighed the same.

It is still several hundred miles east and south of the geographical center of the country, which is in Butte County, S. D., if Alaska and Hawaii are thrown in.

Americans Amass Two Homes

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Nearly two million American families now have not one home but two. The second home, in most cases, being used as a vacation or weekend retreat.

What's a college education worth in terms of money? It is estimated to add between $100,000 and $150,000 in lifetime earnings. By 1975 some 10 per cent of the U. S. population will hold college degrees.

Cows laugh at diets. The average milk cow eats her own weight (1,300 pounds) in hay and grain every month.

A depressing statistic: Safety experts say that probably half of the six million cars produced in 1960 will be involved in injury-or-death producing crashes during their normal eight-year life span.

If your daughter has a marked love of pets, perhaps a career as a veterinarian might interest her. The United States now has nearly 300 lady animal doctors.

New Red Drive for Youth

Just as at another period, the Communist Party of the United States devoted itself to infiltrating the Negro population, so, for 1960, the program is youth.

The Communist Party, which went underground during the early years of the Cold War and Peaceful Competitive Co-Existence, is now coming out into the open again.

For September 1960, the program calls for the publication of "New Horizons" by Youth Publications, Inc. Early in 1960, Mortimer Daniel (Danny) Rubin of Philadelphia, was appointed National Youth Director of the Communist Party, USA. He is a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party. He is a Fifth Amendment witness before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (October 30, 1950).

On March 23, 1960, Danny Rubin, in his position as National Youth Director of the Communist Party, USA, reportedly addressed a pre-National Committee meeting of the Party in Chicago, Ill., that he had three main points to bring before the National Committee meeting of the Communist Party, USA, which was scheduled to be held March 25-27, 1960.

Rubin stressed as his most immediate point the possible formation of a national youth publication, issued monthly. Rubin expressed the opinion that the publication should be a broad socialist-type publication which would appeal to social-minded youth. He announced that the main purpose of the publication would be to promote an exchange of the socialist ideas among youth and that a committee would be set up to run the paper.

This same Danny Rubin, in May 1960, in the role of editor of "New Horizons," made available a "min-

As a national leader Castro is all thumbs. He has done everything wrong since the first wave of enthusiasm carried him to the top. The appraisal in Washington that he may not last the year out is probably well based.

At a family reunion picnic in Ohio there were 75 people including seven uncles and gosh knows how many ants.

The 49th and 50th states, it can be seen, have done more than merely change the pattern of stars in Old Glory. They have kept the population and geographical statisticians jotting away happily at their complicated calculations.

In 1950, when the geographical center of the country was in Smith County, Kans., there was some expectation that the population center might in time move westward far enough to make the two coincide. But unless Alaska thaws out considerably more than anyone expects, and the population shoots upward, the twain are not likely to meet.

Americans Amass Two Homes

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Nearly two million American families now have not one home but two. The second home, in most cases, being used as a vacation or weekend retreat.

What's a college education worth in terms of money? It is estimated to add between $100,000 and $150,000 in lifetime earnings. By 1975 some 10 per cent of the U. S. population will hold college degrees.

Cows laugh at diets. The average milk cow eats her own weight (1,300 pounds) in hay and grain every month.

A depressing statistic: Safety experts say that probably half of the six million cars produced in 1960 will be involved in injury-or-death producing crashes during their normal eight-year life span.

If your daughter has a marked love of pets, perhaps a career as a veterinarian might interest her. The United States now has nearly 300 lady animal doctors.

New Red Drive for Youth

Just as at another period, the Communist Party of the United States devoted itself to infiltrating the Negro population, so, for 1960, the program is youth.

The Communist Party, which went underground during the early years of the Cold War and Peaceful Competitive Co-Existence, is now coming out into the open again.

For September 1960, the program calls for the publication of "New Horizons" by Youth Publications, Inc. Early in 1960, Mortimer Daniel (Danny) Rubin of Philadelphia, was appointed National Youth Director of the Communist Party, USA. He is a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party. He is a Fifth Amendment witness before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (October 30, 1950).

On March 23, 1960, Danny Rubin, in his position as National Youth Director of the Communist Party, USA, reportedly addressed a pre-National Committee meeting of the Party in Chicago, Ill., that he had three main points to bring before the National Committee meeting of the Communist Party, USA, which was scheduled to be held March 25-27, 1960.

Rubin stressed as his most immediate point the possible formation of a national youth publication, issued monthly. Rubin expressed the opinion that the publication should be a broad socialist-type publication which would appeal to social-minded youth. He announced that the main purpose of the publication would be to promote an exchange of the socialist ideas among youth and that a committee would be set up to run the paper.

This same Danny Rubin, in May 1960, in the role of editor of "New Horizons," made available a "mingeographed prospectus of the new publication. He announced that there would be a subscription drive during this summer.

In the preliminary appeal for subscriptions nothing is said about Danny Rubin being the National Youth Director of the Communist Party, USA and simultaneously editor of "New Horizons." Also nothing is said of the plan for this publication having been first presented to the National Committee of the Party. I have a "List of Specific Suggestions," telling how to sell subscriptions:

"1. Go to progressive summer resorts and ask if you may collect subs and or funds for 'New Horizons.' After getting approval, organize the canvassing.

"2. Plan social events, summer picnics and educational events to raise money and collect subs. Members of the 'New Horizons' staff will be available for such gatherings."

The word, progressive, as used here, means Communist of fellow traveler.

In another document marked "To Be Prepared as an Attractive Printed Folder" appears the following:

"1. Peaceful coexistence with all nations, socialist and other; disarmament; an end to the draft and compulsory ROTC.

"2. Integration in schools, eating places, shops and everywhere now! An end to cancerous racism.

"3. A vast job-training and job program; a steep increase in the nation's school, housing, recreation and health programs, utilizing funds released by disarmament.

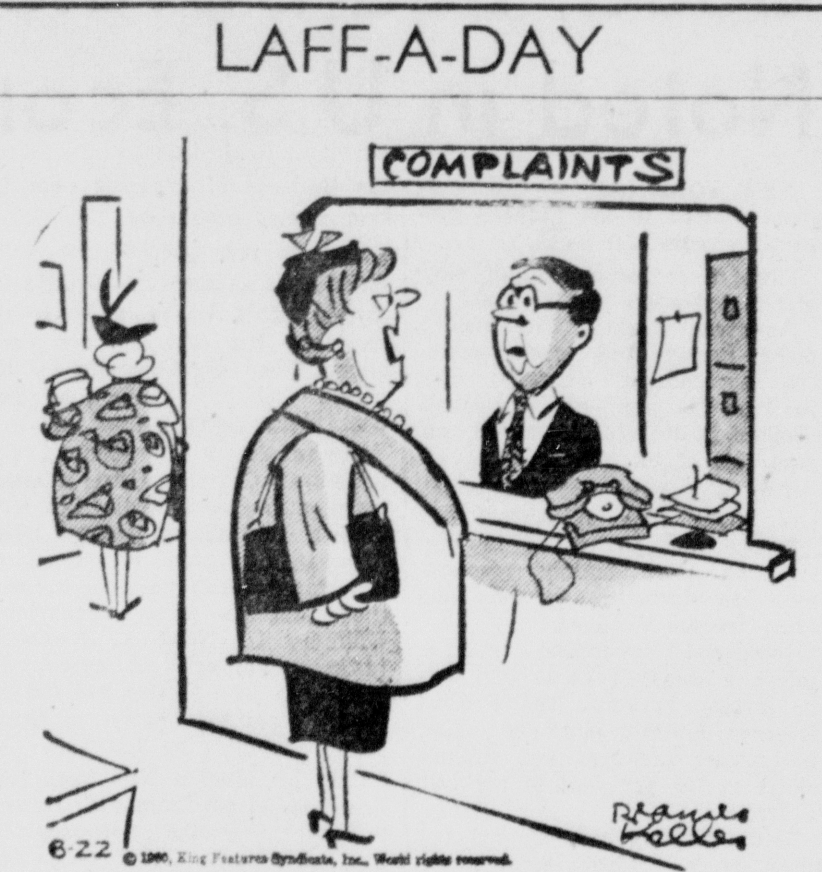

"4. Expansion of democracy, youthful inquiry, and academic freedom by eliminating McCarthyism, past and present, from our national life and by the firm defense of the Bill of Rights.

"5. Examination and advancement of the democratic, labor and socialist traditions and aspirations of the American people, especially of its younger generation.

"6. Instead of the false answers of cynicism and demoralization, ideals of service to society and confidence in a brighter future, exemplified by the heroic actions of Negro students in the sit-in movement."

A HOUSTON STOCK BROKER with a sense of humor offers these explanations of a few terms often found in current market letters:

"The stock, while suitable for long term investors, may be considered to have reached its immediate objective" means, "The underwriting syndicates won't let us have any more shares."

"Management is young and aggressive" means "Sales are under five million dollars"; "Management is sober and mature" means "Sales are leveling off."

"This stock has long been one of our favorites" means "We recommended it two years ago. It hasn't gone down too much and we still play golf with the management."

"Chart action shows the stock to be building a base" means "The damn thing just won't move."

"The market looks to be in a broad trading range" means "Our statistician didn't show up this morning."

What's the Thymus Gland?

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

You were born with a thymus gland, although you may not have it now. Why you had one at all is something of a puzzle to us doctors. It can cause a lot of trouble and, from what we know about it, it never does anyone much good.

The thymus is located in the upper thorax and the lower throat. It increases in size until you reach puberty. Then it slowly atrophies and is replaced largely by fat.

It is the enlargement that sometimes causes trouble. In young infants, severe cases can result in convulsions and death.

Treatment of the gland with radiation may be of some help. However, when the thymus is attacked by a malignancy, radiation therapy is often ineffective.

The thymus is in the endocrine system. But its exact link with the endocrine glands is not clearly known.

The endocrine glands, which include the thyroid and pituitary, in general produce hormones which, when released into the bloodstream, govern several mechanisms of the body.

The rate of growth, body metabolism and sexual development are controlled by the most important glands. We commonly refer to the pituitary as the master gland. Its hormones have considerable influence on some of the other glands.

Now the glands of the endocrine system are mutually dependent one upon the other. When something causes a malfunction in one of the glands, it usually results in disorder in one or more of the others.

This interdependence tends to make hormone therapy a difficult task. We can administer a hormonal substance to treat a disorder in a certain gland, but other glands of this system may be depressed or stimulated at the same time.

Thus the treatment may actually serve to defeat its own purpose, at least in some instances.

Hormonal therapy has its limitations. We can't inject a couple of hormones and always expect to

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon — compared with Sen. John F. Kennedy, his Democratic rival for the presidency—is like a man walking in an egg factory.

Kennedy is free to complain about President Eisenhower's leadership—or lack of it — and blame the Republican administration for mistakes at home and abroad. Not Nixon, even if he wanted to.

As the Republican candidate Nixon can't afford to repudiate either the President or his administration or to antagonize Republicans.

Yet his campaign strategy is to try to sell himself rather than the Republican brand of government or even the Eisenhower brand.

How then can he project an image of himself different from Eisenhower and the acts and attitudes of the Eisenhower administration without appearing to criticize?

He is doing it bit by bit, nevertheless, on civil rights, defense spending, foreign policy, a farm program.

Eisenhower has been criticized for not asserting more leadership in the field of civil rights. Nixon without criticizing the President, says that as president he would take the initiative and urge his cabinet to do so to find solutions.

Democrats and others have criticized the record of the Eisenhower administration. Nixon, again avoiding criticism, says the record of the administration is not something to stand on but to build on.

Eisenhower has insisted defense spending was sufficiently high. The Democrats have contended the administration has not been doing enough to keep ahead of the Russians.

Nixon moved beyond Eisenhower's position by accepting New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's view that the defense program should be stepped up.

For seven years Eisenhower has backed up Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, with whom a lot of farmers are unhappy. Nixon has avoided any direct criticism of the administration's farm program.

Yet he has made it clear he doesn't go along with Eisenhower and Benson on the farm problem. He says he considers it essential to get away from the "rigid positions of the last seven years and make a break through the stalemate."

For years Democrats have pounded on Eisenhower for not assuming a far more active personal role in the conduct of foreign

Tipsy Marine Turns Factory Aide into Man of the Hour

LAGUNA BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A little man from Peoria is about to become the biggest man in Laguna Beach—thanks to a million-to-one-shot telephone call from a slightly befogged Marine.

He is Melvin Miller, married, father of three, hitherto unsung employee of a tractor firm in his Illinois town.

The Marine is Capt. Joe Gestson of Camp Pendleton, near here. He's a 32-year-old career man, rugged, extroverted, lover of jokes, lover of telephonic communication.

What promises to become known as "The Saga of Melvin Miller" started last fall when Gestson and buddies from Pendleton and nearby El Toro Marine bases wound up a wet Labor Day in their favorite off-duty fox-hoe, the Sandpiper Bar.

Gestson had forgotten where he parked his car and, feeling the need of a navigator for the home-ward journey, tried to call a friend. Somehow, he wound up with a long-distance operator.

Through some mystic mischance resulting from a blend of brandy and modern electronics, he wound up talking to hero-to-be Melvin Miller, in Peoria.

"This is Joe down at the Sandpiper," Gestson barked. "Where the hell is my car?"

"This is Melvin Miller and I don't know any sandpipers," responded the voice in Peoria.

"This is Melvin Miller and I said: 'Listen, it's Labor Day here in Peoria—and I'm much too busy for your college boy pranks.'"

Gestson took a cab home. Next day, while marching off his hang-over, he remembered, "Melvin Miller, Peoria."

A few weeks later, from a party, Gestson called Melvin again.

"Listen, Mel this is Joe Gestson in Laguna Beach. We're having a party and we're out of ice. Could you bring some over?"

Mel, still thinking he was being kidded by a Peoria prankster, nonetheless chatted amiably. Next day, Gestson sent him a post card to prove that the call came from California.

The story got a big laugh down at the Sandpiper. It seemed so droll they decided to stretch it.

Gestson got a box of Christmas cards, signed them, and handed them out to anyone going anywhere. Came Christmas and Melvin was deluged with season's greetings from such exotic spots as Japan, Hawaii, Cuba—even from ships at sea.

Every once in a while Gestson phoned Melvin. They became "Joe" and "Good ole Mel."

One winter day Gestson banged his stinger glass on the bar and told bartender Grant Maxwell:

"Let's bring Mel to Laguna!"

Maxwell cooperated by posting a large sign: "Melvin Miller Vacation Fund." Beside it, Gestson placed a 120 M.M. shell casing and, oh, how the money rolled in. When the loot in the shell totaled nearly $300, Mel's vacation was assured. He's due Aug. 31.

When he lands, the Marines plan to have him well in hand. There'll be a motorcade at Los Angeles International Airport and all the fanfare accorded a visiting general. The windup will be "a big blast"—or party—down at the

Sandpiper. During his week away from home, everything will be free—from his $15-a-day hotel suite to drinks at the Sandpiper. Mel's leaving in Peoria his wife, Sally, their three kids and his mother-in-law.

But, says Gestson: "He can telephone them if he gets lonely. Lonely is what good ole Mel is not likely to be."

Activity Bristles as Tiger Gridders Prep

BLOCKING DRILL — Two Tiger linemen barrel into dummies as CHS grid practice here reaches a rapid pace. Plenty of activity like this will be common at the S. Court St. field as Coach Carl Benhase prepares his unit for the season opener September 9 at Paint Valley. (Staff Photo)

THE BIG AND SMALL OF IT — Vern Reichmanus, huge 273-pound Circleville High School tackle, looks down at one of his smaller proteges. Staring him back in the eye at a diagonal tilt is Doug Kiser, 91-pound freshman gridder who has all intentions of someday being a star Tiger performer. You guessed it — Reichmanus is the biggest player on the squad and Kiser the smallest. (Staff Photo)

Circleville High School's grid machine headed into its second week of practice today at the S. Court St. Elementary School field. An increased tempo of work was scheduled to greet the candidates as Coach Carl Benhase and staff strived to put the local force in shape for several pre-season practice games and the September 9 opener at Paint Valley.

The first practice tilt is scheduled Saturday at Jackson in an all-day affair. The first scrimmage is set for 9:30 a. m. with the Ironmen. Coach Benhase said the local gridgers will eat lunch with the Jackson players, then report back to the gridiron for another scrimmage in the afternoon.

ON Monday, August 29, the Tigers will host Grove City in a scrimmage tilt here. This session will start about 3:30 p. m. on the CHS field.

Tuesday Groveport will come here for a practice meeting. This test will start at about 4 p. m. on the varsity gridiron.

The next showing of the Tigers will be at the Bandmothers' Annual Preview, scheduled September 2 at CHS. Football activity will start about 8 p. m. in the form of inter-squad competition.

The snappy CHS Band, under the direction of Truman Eberly, will furnish plenty of entertainment before and at the half of football play.

Coach Benhase and Assistants John Adler, Jack Weikert, Dick Fisher, Jim Lint and Paul Sarchet said they are pleased with progress so far.

Part of the squad's training requires moving to and from the high school to the S. Court St. field on foot. Another conditioner is the old favorite "gassers", demanding windsprints which come at the end of each practice session.

Candidates also are undergoing 50-yard sprints with members of the coaching staff timing them. Saturday halfback hopeful Phil Wing led the way by racing the distance in 6.3 seconds. Close behind were Garold Dade at 6.5 and Freddie Moore at 6.6.

Expensive Grid Star Rides Houston Bench

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The well-heeled Houston Oilers are worried about a knee.

The knee belongs to Billy Cannon, the high-priced two-time All-America and Heisman Trophy winner who survived the rigors of a court suit, but has yet to make his mark as a professional on the football field.

Cannon was lured into the new American Football League by Bud Adams, the oil-millionaire owner of the Houston club who supplied the Louisiana State great with a $100,000 three-year contract that also included lucrative fringe benefits.

Then Adams had to take his case to court when the Los Angeles Rams of the old National League also dislodged a signed Cannon contract. Adams won the case, but hasn't really gained a ball player.

The potential top draw in the new league, Cannon has been shackled by an injured knee and has seen only limited action in Houston's first three exhibition games—two of them losses.

With Cannon sidelined, understudy Charlie Tolar took over and rammed ver for two touchdowns as the Oilers made their home debut a success this weekend by overwhelming the Denver Broncos 42-3.

In other AFL preseason tests, the undefeated Dallas Texans blasted New York's Titans 38-14 and the Boston Patriots defeated the Buffalo Bills 21-7.

Dutch Trotter Wins Crown

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Hairos drops from a $50,000 race to a $15,000 event at Roosevelt Raceway Saturday night, but that doesn't mean he is something of a flop.

In fact, American trainers are unanimous in their belief the great Dutch trotter is superior to Jamin, France's 1959 International winner.

They made their decision after watching the 16-hand-high horse win the second $50,000 International Trot at the raceway last Saturday night.

Clint Hodgins, rated as one of the top trainers, said: "Hairos has it all over Jamin. He not only has the French horse's power and stamina but he has more speed. Jamin couldn't have stayed outside all the way and have won at a mile and a quarter in 2:34 (one second over the world record). Because Hairos was outside in winning Saturday you must say he went better than 2:33."

Hairos' time last Saturday was 2:34, and Hodgins predicted the European champion would do 2:30 the next time. And the next time is Saturday in the $15,000 Challenge Trot over the mile and a quarter route.

He will be opposed by Silver

Song, Crevalcore and Tornese from the International field, and Tyson Scott, Su Mac Lad and Steam' Demon from the American Trotting Championship, won by Silver Song, a week ago.

Steamin' Demon, world's champion double-gaited stallion, is owned by George W. Van Camp of Circleville, Ohio.

Harness racing's record crowd of 56,861 saw the Dutch import triumph by half a length over the fast-closing 25-1 Crevalcore, from Italy. Silver Song, the U. S. hope, was third.

The winner driven by 260-pound Willem Geersen, was third choice in the betting and paid $11.60 to win.

The late Willie Molter, Round Table's trainer, once rode five winners in one day in Canada before becoming a trainer in 1937.

U.S. Olympic Chief Confident

Flood of Medals Forecast in Rome

ROME (AP) — The head of America's Olympic forces shrugged off today suggestions that the star-studded U.S. men's track and field team may be going stale and forecast a cascade of gold medals in the forthcoming games.

"From top to bottom, this is the finest collection of athletes we ever have sent to the games," said Kenneth (Tug) Wilson of Chicago, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee.

"They have been superbly trained and superbly handled. If we are beaten out for medals, it will be because of the competition. We will not beat ourselves."

Wilson's comments came in the wake of charges that the U.S. men's track squad faced an Olympic letdown because of so many preliminary meets including the two-day weekend competition at Bern, Switzerland.

Mal Whitfield, former U.S. Olympic star now helping Liberians, said he believed the Yanks were leaving their fight in the gym, so to speak. Hal Connolly, the hammer throw champ from Santa Monica, Calif., called the Bern junket a "silly, sightseeing tour."

The track boys favored to dominate their division in the games opening Thursday, arrive here by train Tuesday night, completing America's huge delegation in the Olympic village.

They showed no signs of a letdown at Bern where Lee Calhoun of Gary, Ind., equalled the world record for 110-meter hurdles with 13.2 seconds; Ralph Boston of Laurel, Miss., broad-jumped 26 feet 8 1/2 inches, and Glen Davis of Columbus, Ohio, did 22.5 seconds in the 200-meter hurdles around a curve, equalling the world record.

First baseman Frank Robinson's 134 home runs stands as the Cincinnati Reds record for right hand batters.

Baltimore Owes Big Thank-You To Boston '9'

Sox Play Cousin Role 14 of 18 Times for Orioles in AL Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If Baltimore's Orioles should pull off the biggest upset of the 1960 baseball season and win the American League pennant, they can thank the Boston Red Sox.

Of the 18 games played between the two teams, the Orioles have won 14.

One of the reasons for the Orioles' superiority over the Red Sox has been Ronnie Hansen. The 22-year-old shortstop, who seems bent on capturing rookie-of-the-year honors, hit one of Baltimore's two home runs Sunday as the Orioles drubbed the Red Sox 10-4 to move into a second-place tie with Chicago, only a game and a half behind the league-leading Yankees. The other Baltimore homer was a grand slammer by catcher Gus Triandos.

Hansen's batting average is a modest .288 but in 18 games against Boston pitching, he owns a .451 mark. Of his 71 runs batted in, 34 have come against the Red Sox.

Washington beat New York 7-4 and Kansas City trounced Chicago 8-1. Detroit swept a pair from Cleveland by the same 6-4 scores.

Three Washington home runs ruined the Yankees. The most productive was the three-run homer by Harmon Killebrew, his 21st, but the key blow was Jim Lemon's 29th, with one on, that snapped a 4-4 tie in the eighth. Bob Allison added the 13th. The victory boosted the Senators into fourth place.

Kansas City matched its biggest hit total of the season, rapping five Chicago pitchers for 17 hits as the A's snapped a 10-game losing streak. Ray Herbert permitted only three hits and got three himself in notching his eighth victory.

A Briggs Stadium crowd of 28,891, bringing the team's home attendance to 1,026,193, saw the Tigers extend their winning streak to six with their sweep of the Indians. The double loss was the sixth straight doubleheader defeat for Cleveland.

Frank Bolling's two-run triple climaxed a four-run fifth that enabled the Tigers to overcome a 4-2 lead in the opener. He had six hits in the twin bill. Eddie Yost singled in two runs in the eighth of the nightcap to snap a 4-4 tie.

It is becoming more evident each day that if Milwaukee is to overtake Pittsburgh, it will be done behind the strong arms of those inimitable roommates, Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette, with an assist from Bob Buhl.

Spahn Sunday hurled his 15th victory, a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia. That cut Pittsburgh's first place lead to 6½ games. The Pirates were beaten by Cincinnati 8-4.

The brilliant southpaw is now one up on roomie Burdette, whose 14th triumph last Thursday was a no-hitter against the same Phils.

Since the Fourth of July, Spahn has won nine of 11 and completed seven of 10 starts. He has relieved only twice. During the same span, Burdette has won six of nine decisions and has completed six of nine starts. He, too, has relieved only twice. Between them, Spahn and Burdette have won 29 of the Braves' 65 games and have pitched 23 of their 36 complete games.

Milwaukee kept a game and a half in front of St. Louis' Cardinals who swept past Los Angeles into third place by defeating the Dodgers 2-0. The Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants divided a pair, the Cubs winning the first game 5-3 and the Giants taking the second by the same score.

Horsedrawn Carriages Dwindle in Paris

PARIS (AP) — What gondolas are to Venice, horsedrawn carriages used to be to Paris. There are only 10 carriages still operating, compared with 170 in World War II times. The oldest coachman is 76, the youngest, 60, and no new licenses are issued.

Ex-Rams End Hailed By Browns' Boss

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Leon Clarke, the 230-pound end received from the Los Angeles Rams last week, is working out as a slot end with the Cleveland Browns.

"He looks like the type we need on the crosses, slants and diagonals," said Coach Paul Brown. "We think Clarke will be most effective running from the slot position."

Clark is not able to operate at full speed because a pulled leg muscle he suffered several weeks ago while training with the Rams has not healed completely.

Half of Oslo Students Admit Unlawful Acts

OSLO, Norway (AP) — A study of 125 students at the University of Oslo showed that half of all youths in the under-25 age group have committed unlawful acts and not been caught. Fifty-two per cent stole money at home, 29.6 per cent stole from stores, 22.4 per cent embezzled money, 35.2 per cent falsified documents, and 8 per cent were guilty of statutory rape.

Redleg Rookie Hurler Hard on Pirates

CHICAGO (AP) — Pittsburgh's league-leading Pirates have bitter memories of the broad, sweeping curves young Jay Hook offered them Sunday.

Except for the Pirates' first base strong boy, Dick Stuart, who homered twice, the 23-year-old right hander had the Pirates stifled until the eighth inning.

He had to let Jim Brosnan finish out the ninth with his usual deft competence, but the 8-4 victory was virtually all Hook's.

Hook (10-13) scattered nine hits and was not in serious trouble in early innings.

The Pirates, dropped to a 6½-game league lead by the decision, collected a run in the first inning that was partly a gift.

Dick Groat drew a walk and after advancing as Bob Skinner hit into an easy out, scored as Stuart's pop single dropped behind the Cincinnati infield.

Stuart banged his first homer in the fifth and another in the eighth. Hook also was tagged for a followup eighth inning homer by Roberto Clemente.

The Reds took the lead in the third when Billy Martin walked and Vada Pinson hit his 13th homer.

Rookie Cliff Cook added a home run in the fourth. And Wally Post rammed his second pinch homer of the year in the eighth, with one on.

But a three-run fifth inning was the biggest factor and chased Job Friend to an early shower.

The

Vice Ring Is Smashed In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police report they have smashed a vice ring involving alleged procurers and prostitutes on the East Side.

Detectives Sunday arrested three men three women and two girls, 14 and 15. They said further arrests were expected.

Charged with procuring were Floyd Totty, 33, and Fred Pittman, 22. Charges were pending against a 29-year-old man.

Miss Joanne Calhoun, 21, was booked as a suspicious person. Miss Florence Harris, 22, was charged with neglect of minor children on a warrant signed by her father police said. A 22-year-old woman was held for investigation.

The two teen-age girls were held in the juvenile detention home.

Police said the roundup started early last Friday. The 15-year-old is a runaway from Girls Industrial School near Delaware. The girl, under questioning, led police to the 14-year-old, a runaway from suburban Bedford, and to Totty's home. There Totty, Miss Calhoun and Miss Harris were arrested.

"SATELLITE MAIL"—When the Discoverer XII capsule was recovered from space orbit, it carried an optimistic note from a Lockheed Aircraft quality control inspector, Melvin R. Wedan (above). The note said, "OK to put top cover on. This one's coming back." The capsule was the first ever recovered from orbit.

Trains Voice Changes

LONG BRANCH, N. J. (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad's shore commuter run has reached its adolescence. Its voice is changing.

Harmonizing chime horns are replacing the old monotone signals on the diesel engines.

The switch has two objectives, a railroad spokesman says—to boost safety and to pacify nerve-wracked residents who claim the old horns sounded like the bellows of a wounded rhinoceros.

The Nova Scotian town of Antigonish gets its name from a Micmac Indian word meaning "the place where branches were torn off trees by bears gathering beechnuts."

FAIR ATTRACTION — This little dog lover makes a last minute check before sending one of Lassie's kinfolk off to the dog house at the 1960 Ohio State Fair, August 26 thru September 2. Some of the country's finest canines will be on display in the "dog house," the Little Theater Building, during the State Fair.

West Pointer Maris Jende On Local Rotary Club Agenda

West Point Cadet Maris Jende, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard Jende, will speak to the Circleville Rotary Club Thursday. He will be accompanied by George Borders also of Kingston.

Jende, a native of Latvia, was in a concentration camp in Germany and Latvia for four years, along with his parents and two brothers, John and Aenis.

The Jendes, before being placed in the concentration camps in 1945, owned a 300-acre farm in Latvia. When the Russians invaded the country, their farm, stock and personal possessions were confiscated by the Russians. They saved only what they could carry.

In 1949 the Latvian family was among the 200,000 displaced persons given entry to the United States. Arriving in the United States, Maris was retarded scholastically at the age of eleven, after spending four years in the concentration camps without any source of education. He and his brothers couldn't speak English and their parents' English was limited to what they had learned in school.

Today Maris Jende, 22, and his family live on a farm near Kingston, owned by George Borders. Borders is the U. S. sponsor for the Latvian family. The Jendes now have their citizenship papers.

MARIS IS a 1959 graduate of Kingston High School and he not only speaks English fluently, but also Polish, German and Russian. He won the 4-H Junior Leadership award in 1958 for Ross County, and has one year of training at Ohio University.

In 1959 Jende was one of 15 candidates chosen by President Eisenhower to attend West Point Military Academy in New York, and he is now in his second year there.

Jende has been very active in sports in high school and at the academy and in connection with this, the little league baseball team, sponsored by the Rotarians, will be present at the meeting August 25.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's big eight-day state fair opens next Friday with emphasis on youth.

The opening day has been designated as "Youth Day" with many special events arranged for boys and girls. But to give variety, a "Senior Citizen's Day" also has been arranged for Thursday, Sept. 1. That same day also has been designated Governor's and Legislator's day.

In addition to millions of dollars worth of exhibits on home, farm and industry available for fairgoers, there will be hundreds of other things to do and see that doesn't cost a cent, fair officials declared.

Probably two of the big attractions at the fair this year will be the Christian Brothers Circus, a major grandstand event for all eight days of the exposition. The Atomic Energy Commission's largest traveling exhibit, "You and the Atom," will give fairgoers a glimpse into the present and future world of the peaceful atom.

There will be harness racing Aug. 29-Sept. 1 with an estimated $135,000 in purse money. Post time during the four-day meet is 2 p.m. Horse lovers also can watch the night horse shows, Aug. 28 through Sept. 2 in the newly remodeled Coiseum.

Other special days at the fair will be Saturday, Aug. 27, Press Day; Sunday Aug. 28, Armed Forces day. Monday, Aug. 29, Crippled Children's Day and Safety Day; Tuesday, Aug. 30, Farm Organization Day and Fraternal Day; Wednesday, Aug. 31, Director of Agriculture Day, Fair Managers' Day and Boy Scout Day.
